

EXECUTIVE ROUND TABLE: FIRST 100-DAY PROGRAM THEMES

8:00 Welcome and Opening Remarks

Welcome: President of FVTC, Dr. Susan May

Opening Remarks: President of Center for Leadership Government, Dr. Terri McCormick
Leadership Best Practices and Engagement within the First 100-Day Agenda,
Opportunities and Challenges within a Changing Business Environment

8:10 Leading, Creating, and Providing Sustainable Opportunities

Learning Objective: Learn the opportunities and challenges for business and industry within the proposed 100-Day Agenda; Access to Capital, Regulation Reform, Business Tax, as well as other Pro Growth Policy Needs from the Panelist Point of View.

Panelists:

Rod Ghormley; President of Down Home LLC

Sherman Barnes II; VP of Supply Chain Solutions, Schneider International

Manny Vasquez; VP Business Development, Pfefferle Companies

9:00 Leadership Engagement: Encouraging and Leveraging Talent Attraction and Motivation, Creating and Extending a Pro Growth Culture

Learning Objective: Best Practice Strategies: Understand the levers that leaders on local and regional levels have used to attract business and talent - identifying common themes

Panelists:

Karen Harkness; Director of Community and Economic Development

James Golembeski; Bay Area Workforce Development Board

Beth Pritzl; Director of Research & Technology at Fox Cities Regional Partnership, UWO

10:00 Leadership Insight and Forecast: Effective Strategies for the Changing Business Environment proposed in the First 100 Day Agenda - REALITY VS POLICY

Learning Objective: Examine key challenges, both organizational and interpersonal, that arise in transforming the new Business Climate proposed within the '1st 100 Day Agenda'

Panelists:

Bill G. Smith, Wisconsin State Director, National Federation of Independent Business

Buckley Brinkman; Executive Director Wisconsin Center for Manufacturing & Productivity

11:00 CLOSING REMARKS COMMENTS

Participation: Debriefing Sessions and Dialogue, Leadership Accountability & Listening: Giving and Soliciting Feedback

Learning Objective: Better understand effective leader strategies professionally, organizationally, and systemically within the First 100 Days and Other Public Policy Proposals, which Impact Business Growth and Development.